THE EDITOR ETCETERA 1983

MS. SARAH SARKASTIC-ETC. PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR

FROM THE EDITOR . . .

"Holy cow! That's probably what you said when you looked at the cover of this yearbook. Then when you looked on page one you probably thought that this book was for the birds!" Well, you're wrong! This book was produced by a team of highly trained technical experts and they're all part of a wonderful yearbook staff. However, most of them have returned to their cells at the state mental institution where life is not so difficult. We hope you enjoy the book and find it free of errors and mistakes. It's not often you'll find a book of this calibre that only costs a small fortune.

But you can bet your Big Mac that we've tried to bring you the best for less . . . or is it less for best? . . . or is it, least for most? Who cares! Read it and enjoy it, but don't complain to me. Refer your complaints to Sarah Sarkastic (pictured below) . . . she'll tell you what she thinks about your comments."

Thank you,
The Editor

A message from
Ms. Sarkastic-

"Who do you know wants to buy a yearbook? We might have one or two left, but they're sure gonna go fast. The first two hundred people to buy one will get my signature free, above my photo. By the way, my phone number is 633-7731! (I've got the time!)

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

ANTHONY B. FRUHAUF

To The Class of 1983

This message is for you now as you leave Prairie and go on to the next phase of your life's learning. I also hope you will choose to reread it when you put your Prairie yearbook off the shelf five, ten, perhaps even twenty years from now. Not that your headmaster is a memorable author — far from it, simply these thoughts are very much my own and are offered as probably the most personal contribution I can make to your process of "summing up" the meaning of the years you have spent at Prairie.

The major, "official" benefit of your time has been, of course, your academic learning coupled with the extracurricular areas where you have developed yourselves in very important ways. Most of you have probably seen all this as preparation for college, careers, and success in the world. Indeed, a recent poll of college freshmen has indicated that nearly 70% of them regard formal education as a pathway to material and worldly success.

Whether you feel that way or not, there is another, more significant aim which I would like to suggest for all of us. It is that we always try to practice and progress in the art of giving. Too often we spend our early adult years being as busy and successful as opportunity allows, only to find that the ability to see others' needs and meet them remains underdeveloped. Perhaps, as time progresses for us, we all will be able to define Success more in terms of satisfying and enriching other people's lives as we move through our own. More than ever, I feel that this is the key to the inner happiness which we all are really seeking — even when we look towards prosperity or worldly recognition.

Please look around you carefully if you will while you go through the final days of your Prairie career. I think you can recognize the people who have given of themselves to you, certainly if you think back during the coming years their gifts to you will become more and more evident. One of their greatest rewards will be to know that you are perpetuating the vital art of giving which keeps us all really alive.

With my best personal regards and wishes for you in the coming years,

Anthony B. Fruhauf

This years season was full of triumphs and tragedies. We lost in the Parkside Invitation Tournament game to St. Catharines 1-0, but we managed to beat them later in the season 2-0. Our biggest victories were against cross-town rival Horlick and conference rival Notre Dame, both being very tough contests. We managed to compile a 12-5-1 record, extending Coach Henkes' string of "non-losing" season records, but we failed to qualify for the State tourney. Our season was full of bad breaks; injuries and untimely losses. We lost 1-0 to Marquette who won the State Championship, and we tied USM 3-3, the conference champs. Our team was definitely championship caliber, but a loss to St. John's kept us out of the tourney. Individually, our team had the most members on the all conference and all county teams, and Denis Navratil won player of the year honors in Racine County.

The Hawks had a fine season winning the Racine County meet, Regionals and placing Fourth at the State meet. They were paced by Kristin Falstad who finished 4th in the State at number one singles, while Chryl Knape did the same at No.2 singles. Emily and Jenny won No.1 doubles in the Regional and lost in the quarterfinals at the State Meet. Julie and Ann also won their regional finishing 4th at the State meet. The squad next year will miss Mary Taylor who played No.3 singles and Mary Osmundson who played No.3. doubles with Shayla Kontra. Our fourth singles players was Felicia Khoja. The Hawks should be better than ever in 1983 with this young talented group

The 1982 edition of the Prairie Hawk squad showed good through the season. Lead by Sophomore Ara Pehlivanian and Junior Mike McCurdy, the squad finished with a 5-6 record. Graduating from this years team are seniors Pete Pavako, Mike Veranth, and Bill Walker

1983 BOYS TENNIS SEASON

The Hawks will be paced by Captain Thor Swanson, who finished third at the state meet at number 1 singles. Dennis Davratil, Don Baumblatt, Chris Schuleit and Pat Thom will play our other singles spots. Our doubles players will be Steve Lamberton, Mike Veranth, Bob Leschow, Marc Lepp, Mark Johnson, Richard Ruffo and Bill Waker. The Hawks should finish second or third this year and with a fine team performance could win the state title.

CHEERLEADERS

The 1982-83 Cheerleading Squad worked very hard to reintroduce the idea to Prairie. The Cheerleaders attended a clinic prior to the season, in which they learned many new cheers and ideas about being a cheerleader. They tried to involve the crowd as much as possible, and they raised a lot of school spirit! They really proved to be an important aspect to the basketball games. The cheerleaders should be proud of themselves for a successful season!

ROBERT JOHNSON

The ultimate destiny of man is to change his immediate destiny

For the sea refuses no river
Remember that when the beggar buys a round
The sea refuses no river
And rain fills the gutters
No time for stutters
This is our chance
To sing and to dance and to clown
The sea refuses no river
And rivers were sprung to drown

The sea refuses no river
No pecking code respected for the damned
The sea refuses no river
Whether starving and ill
Or strung on some pill
Just 'cos you own the land
There's no unique hand plugs the dam
The sea refuses no river
And the river is where I am
Charles Townshend

I don't matter-you don't matter
Neither does this mindless clatter
It don't matter where you're from What matters is your uniform
Charles Townshend

If you gotta ask what jazz is,
you ain't never gonna know
Fats Waller

New York-lookin' down on Central Park
Where they say you should not wander after dark
-Benny Gallagher & Graham Lyle

Victories that are easy are cheap
Those only are worth having which come as the result of hard fighting
Henry Ward Beecher

If we value the pursuit of knowledge
we must be free to follow wherever that search may lead us
-Adlai Stevenson

Don't arrange to have me sent to no asylum
 I'm just as sane as anyone
 It's just a game I play for fun- for fun
 I told 'em- look! - I said I'm not the way you're think n
 Just when I'm down I'll be the clown, I'll play the fool Please don't arrange to have me sent to no asylum, I'm just as sane as anyone
 It's just a game I play for fun- for fun
 -Supertramp
